

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. What are the most important factors to consider when selecting an active adult community?

A. For many people, location is one of the most important considerations. Being near family and friends is significant, as well as being close to shopping, quality medical facilities, worship sites, restaurants, a major airport, and popular recreation and cultural destinations. Other important considerations include the governance of the Association as well as its financial management and status. The amenity package, including the variety of activities and opportunities, and the monthly Association fees are other important factors most consider before selecting their home in a specific active adult community.

Q. Effective October 1, 2017 Sun City Roseville implemented a Special Use Fee of $1,500.00 to all new homeowners. What is this for?

A. Each new homeowner will be required to pay the Special Use Fee of $1,500.00 in order to obtain an Activity Card which enables residents to use Association Facilities, enjoy Association planned activities, join Association Clubs or Groups and take advantage of the resident rates for Golf. This Special Use Fee may be pre-paid in escrow or will be due in the Administration Office at the time of registration.
